Chapter 3 by Queen of Words

Eddie waited impatiently for his stupid robot to get there. He hoped she hadn't opened one of those virus files that would completely down her system. Then he'd have to fix her all over again. The quiet opening of the door and a soft step drew his attention. His robot stepped through and stood in front of him.

"You called?"

Chapter 4 by SabotageTurtle

"Took you long enough", Eddie mumbled in agitation. Of all his creations, GERTY, the robot standing before him, was the only one to constantly disregard Eddie's commands.

"I am sorry, Eddie", came GERTY's monotoned reply.

Shaking his head in disapproval, Eddie returned to the task at hand.

"I have an assignment for you, GERTY. Normally, I would send one of the others, but they are all preoccupied with equally important tasks", Eddie paused to consider the situation before continuing, "Gerty, I am sending you to retrieve a file that has been stolen from me."

...no_

"Whatta mean no? GERTY, you have to get that file. It is extremely important that you get it!"

He whipped his head around, and asked for the task to be accepted.

"GERTY, you have to." She didn't know she could override her system, so he kept bluffing.

"No, sir, not until you explain why." Her monotone was extremely annoying, especially on the word "no".

Eddie sighed, weighing his options. He knew that if he had her continue to resist, she would look for a way to override, and it would be too easily discovered.

"Fine, just... give me a second." He sighed again, and GERTY recognized his facial expression in her 'pained expressions' folder.

"I need to know where to begin. I don't want you to feel offended."

Chapter 6 by Evan Shrier

"This file has designs for all of our robots, except our newest one: You." Eddie said, as he plugged GERTY in for her data dump. "The enemy has been capturing all of our robots and stripping their motherboards. The only way to save them, is to search through all the 437 files..."

"That shouldn't be a problem, with my instant photographic memory."

"Exactly," Eddie said, "and that is why you need to be a hero, GERTY."

Chapter 7 by Xycronic

Eddie peeked open his eyes. Thank goodness he didn't actually equip GERTY with any killing objects. That weak-fisted punch did nothing.

GERTY whirled off. Eddie turned. See more of Story Wars acting quite weird... Time to fix this.

"Computer, access memory logs of unit GERTY."

The screen displayed an error message. "What do you mean, blocked?"

With a heavy sigh, he knew who had done this. He crumpled onto his chair, face in hands. He sat there for a good five minutes.

Turning to the computer once again, he keyed in a command.

"Activate kill switch for unit GERTY."

GERTY plot a course for the coordinates sent to her by Unknown.

Received: Your creator's not dead.

Response: You told me to terminate him. I did my best. It is against the three laws of robotics to do so.

Received: Damnit, GERTY. I thought I disabled those. Don't give me excuses. Whatever. Go to the coordinates.

Response: Who are you?

Transmission ended.

GERTY analyzed this new information. This strange UNKNOWN seemed very nitpicky. All of a sudden, she felt a tingling at her memory database. Oh no. UNKNOWN would not be able to access her files. Activating the firewall, she blocked it.

Eddie watched as the progress bar clicked to full. GERTY was dead. And his brother would not get her.

ve it?"

Eddie whirled around, eyes wide open but not believing. There in the doorway stood his brother, blocking out the light, wielding a wicked blade. Jordan Crosman.

Chapter 8 by Erika Logofet

Jordan Crosman made an entrance through the doorway. He started to speak.

"Well, well, well. Look who we have here. My little brother, Eddie Crosman "

"Are you gonna kill me? If so, go ahead." Eddie said.

"What gentleman kills a person with their own hands?" Jordan Laughed. He pointed at GERTY
"GERTY will."

"What!?" Eddie stuttered. "But GERTY has been erased!!"

"From your databases yes, but from mine, not quite"

"GERTY, terminate Eddie Jhonson"

GERTY stood up. She friskly walked over to Jordan, took his blade and turned to Eddie.

GERTY's eyes were red. Gust as GERTY put the blade to Eddies throat. Just as she was going to slice his trough his throat GERTY's eyes turned blue. In a flash, the blade was in Jordan Crosman's stomach.
